

Online Workshop

Towards Consulting Best Practices Technique for Women in Statistics and Data Science in Nigeria

Dr. M.O. Adenomon, Coordinator of NSUK-LISA Stat Lab, and his team received a training grant from the ISI Statistical Building Committee worth $1000 to conduct a training workshop titled "Towards Consulting Best Practices Technique for Women in Statistics and Data Science in Nigeria" at Nasarawa State and Federal Capital Territory, Abuja, Nigeria" for about 50 participants. Due to the impact of COVID-19 the workshop will be conducted online.

Dates : 20 and 27 June 2020
Time : 10:00 am
Target audience : Women in Statistics and Data Science
Registration link : <https://forms.gle/38i5iRF9sD2J5Yko9>

The workshop includes the following:

- i. Hands-on training with STATA
- ii. Sharing consulting best practices and mentoring from experiences of NSUK-LISA and LISA 2020 network
- iii. Talk on grant writing, proposal development and research methodology
- iv. Talk on advocacy for more women in statistics and data science in Nigeria
- v. Talk on the opportunities of women in statistics and data science in Nigeria

NSUK-LISA STAT LAB, DEPARTMENT OF STATISTICS

Presents WEBINAR on the Capacity Building on Consulting best practices technique for Women in Statistics and Data Science in Nigeria

Dr(Mrs) M. U. Adehi
NSUK-LISA STAT LAB
Department of Statistics

Dr(Mrs) B. Maijamaa
NSUK-LISA STAT LAB
Department of Statistics

Prof. O. E. Olubusoye
Coordinator, UI-LISA

Dr. M. O. Adenomon
Coordinator; NSUK-LISA
Department of Statistics

Dates: 20th June and 27th June 2020
Time: 10am

Registration link: <https://forms.gle/38i5iRF9sD2J5Yko9>
Contacts
adenomonmo@nsuk.edu.ng
07036990145

 International Statistical Institute