Invitation to the Women's Networking Reception

You are invited to the Women's Networking Reception/Breakfast organized by the ISI Committee on Women in Statistics and sponsored by Elsevier.

Tuesday, 28th July 2015, from 7:30–9:00 hours – Room 205

An informal networking session with breakfast will be combined with round table discussions. These will be convened with people working in the same sector of statistics but at different stages of their careers, in order to assist in the development of mentoring relationships.

Please register online at <http://www.isi-web.org/8799> as soon as possible, or otherwise return the form below at the ISI booth no later than 14.00 on Monday 27 July. All are welcome but places are limited and registration before the WSC is suggested.

Don't forget your business cards on the day in order to be entered into a prize draw.

This event is generously sponsored by Elsevier Publishers.
