Call for nominations for Doebelin Prize

The Bernoulli Society welcomes nominations for the third Wolfgang Doebelin Prize for Outstanding Research in Probability, to be awarded at the 9th World Congress of Probability and Statistics in Toronto in 2016. Each nomination should offer a brief case in support and should be sent to balint.toth@bristol.ac.uk by 30 November 2015.

Founded in 2011, the prize is awarded bi-annually to a single individual for outstanding research in the field of probability theory, and who is at the beginning of their mathematical career. See <http://goo.gl/gAtuUf>.

UK Easter Probability Meeting 2016, Lancaster, 4-8 April 2016

The UK Easter Probability Meeting is a long-standing tradition and is used to bring together the UK probability community. The aim is to discuss recent developments, to speak about future research and also to give PhD students an opportunity to become part of the UK probability community.

Mini courses: Alice Guionnet, Michel Ledoux, Jason Miller, Vladas Sidoravicius. Confirmed speakers: Dmitry Belyaev, Noam Berger, Natasha Blitvic Erwin Bolthausen, Jon Keating, Kay Kirkpatrick, Elizabeth Meckes, Anatoly Vershik, Fredrik Viklund.

Registration now open via <http://goo.gl/RdseLR>.

4th Institute of Mathematical Statistics Asia Pacific Rim Meeting, Hong Kong, 27-30 June 2016

The fourth meeting of the Institute of Mathematical Statistics meeting series, IMS Asia Pacific Rim Meeting, will take place in Hong Kong during 27-30 June 2016. It will provide an excellent forum for scientific communications and collaborations for the researchers in Asia and Pacific Rim, and promote communications and collaborations between the researchers in this area and those from other parts of the world.

Deadline for session proposals: 20 November. <http://goo.gl/yZvgNA>

9th World Congress of Probability and Statistics, Toronto, 11-15 July 2016

The 9th World Congress of Probability and Statistics is the latest in a series organized jointly by the Bernoulli Society and the Institute of Mathematical Statistics. Held every four years, it is a worldwide event covering all branches of statistics and probability. This includes theoretical, methodological, applied and computational statistics and probability, as well as stochastic processes. The latest scientific developments in all of these fields are showcased. <http://goo.gl/YdjeOu>

61st World Statistics Congress, Marrakech, 16-21 July 2017

The Chair of the Scientific Programme Committee, Fabrizio Ruggeri, and the Chair of the Local Programme Committee, Mohamed Taamouti, invite the statistical community to present proposals for the Invited Paper Sessions and Special Topic Sessions.

Deadline for proposing an Invited Paper Session: 15 February 2016. <http://goo.gl/W0p6lX>

21st International Congress on Modelling and Simulation, Queensland, 29 November- 4 December 2015

The Biannual MODSIM2015 congress of the Modelling and Simulations Society of Australia and New Zealand is to be held with the theme "partnering with industry and the community for innovation and impact through modelling". Expressions of Interest should include a title and summary for those who intend to submit a full paper or extended abstract for presentation at the conference. The list of sessions is available at <http://goo.gl/Ddy8q2>.

9th Conference of the Asian Regional Section of the IASC, Singapore, 17-19 December 2015

The IASC-ARS conference is the main conference organized by the Asian Regional Section of the International Association for Statistical Computing. It is organized every two to four years for attendees to exchange and learn about the latest information in Statistical Computing with applications. The conference topic for 2015 is "Statistical Computing: Challenges and Opportunities in Big Data Era". <http://goo.gl/5ut65t>.

12th German Probability and Statistics Days, Bochum, 1-4 March 2016

The DMV-Fachgruppe Stochastik organizes jointly with the Ruhr-Universität Bochum the 12th German Probability and Statistics Days 2016 Bochumer Stochastik-Tage. This meeting provides an international forum for presentation and discussion of new results in the area of probability and statistics. Contributed talks will be given in 12 sections devoted to specific topics; the highlight of each section will be one invited main talk.

Plenary speakers: Sandrine Dudoit, Laszlo Erdős, Martin Hairer, Iain Johnstone, Walter Schachermayer.

Deadline for abstract submission: 30 November. <http://goo.gl/oQj5ul>

12th Conference on Stochastic Networks, University of California, San Diego, 20-24 June 2016

This week-long event continues a tradition that was started in 1987 and has now become a biennial event. The aim of the conference is to bring together researchers who share an interest in stochastic network models, to survey recent developments, and to identify future research directions.

Speakers: Emmanuel Abbe, Anima Anandkumar, Rami Atar, Francois Baccelli, Maury Bramson, Guy Bresler, Fan Chung Graham, Jim Dai, Itai Gurvich, Weining Kang, Tom Kurtz, Mark Lewis, Yi Lu, Siva Maguluri, Laurent Massoulié, Angelia Nedich, Kavita Ramanan, Philippe Robert, Neil Walton, Galit Yom Tov, Bert Zwart. <http://goo.gl/OqWuAC>.
