Call for Short Course proposals for the ISI WSC 2017

As you know the 61st ISI World Statistics Congress will be held next year from 16 – 21 July in Marrakech. Similar to previous editions, short courses will be offered immediately before the WSC 2017 meetings, between 13 and 15 July 2017. For detailed information please see <http://www.isi2017.org/index.php/isi2017/scientific-programme/short-courses>.

If you are interested in offering a short course, please send your proposal to Tomàs Aluja (tomas.aluja@upc.edu) before 22nd of July. The received proposals will be reviewed by the Short Course Committee and submitted to the ISI Executive Committee for approval.
