Call for Papers

The ISI Regional Statistics Conference (RSC) 2017 is organized by the ISI and its South East Asia Regional Network (ISI-SEA Network) together with Bank Indonesia as the co-host, in collaboration with Badan Pusat Statistik (Statistics Indonesia), Ikatan Perstatistikan Indonesia (Association of Indonesia Statistician) and Forum Masyarakat Statistik (Indonesia Statistician Forum). It will bring together eminent statisticians and members of the statistical community from all around the world, particularly the South East Asia region, to present, discuss, promote and disseminate research and best practice in every field of Statistics and its applications to prosper human life.

ISI RSC 2017 will feature a rich scientific program focusing on the latest knowledge and innovation in Statistics. It will also be an excellent opportunity to benefit from additional scientific activities such as satellite meetings and short courses. We are immensely pleased to invite you to attend the ISI RSC 2017 to be held in Bali, Indonesia from 21 to 24 March 2017.

ISI RSC 2017 is a three-day conference with pre-event activities, namely ECB-BIS-BI Seminar on Monetary & Financial Statistics (20-21 March 2017), IFC Satellite Seminar on Big Data (21 March 2017), as well as Workshops and Short Courses (21 March 2017). The Main Conference program will be held from 22 to 24 March 2017. There will be two types of sessions: Invited Paper Sessions (IPSs) and Contributed Paper Sessions (CPSs). The organizers welcome submissions of papers (English only and in PDF files) in areas of Macro-Financial Statistics, Statistical Theory and Methodology, and Official Statistics.
