

Results of the 2018 ISI Officers' Elections

This year's ISI Officers' Elections were conducted from 4 September - 30 October. We are delighted to announce the election of the following persons.

For the post of President-Elect (2019-2021):

Stephen Penneck (UK)

For two Vice-President posts (2019-2023):

Byeong Park (Rep. of Korea)

Gabriella Vukovich (Hungary)

For eight Council Member posts (2019-2023):

Victor Alfredo Bustos (Mexico)

Albina Chuwa (United Rep. of Tanzania)

Andreas Georgiou (Greece/USA)

Dominique Haughton (USA)

Kerrie Mengersen (Australia)

Fionn Murtagh (UK)

Aurel Schubert (Austria)

Elena Zarova (Russian Federation)

The current Officers who will be continuing their service for a further period of two years (2019-2021) and thus serve together with those elected are:

President John Bailer (USA), Vice-Presidents Peter Guttorp (USA) and Fabrizio Ruggeri (Italy);

Council Members Ola Awad (Palestine), Anil Gore (India), Victor Panaretos (Switzerland), Natalie Shlomo (UK), Kwok Tsui (Hong Kong), Jessica Utts (USA) and Martina Vandebroek (Belgium).

The formal approval of the election results by the ISI General Assembly will occur during the WSC in Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia, from 18- 23 August 2019. We are grateful to all candidates for their enthusiasm and willingness to support the ISI.

The Associations' Presidents, the past ISI President, the Director General of Statistics Netherlands and the ISI Director, complete the Council.

The new team will start its work after the WSC in Kuala Lumpur on 23 August 2019.