

New Book Review Editor for the International Statistical Review

We are pleased to announce that, effective February 2020, Dr. Chaitra H. Nagaraja is the Book Review Editor of the International Statistical Review.

Chaitra H. Nagaraja is Associate Professor of Statistics at the Gabelli School of Business at Fordham University, USA. Prior to joining Fordham, she was a Mathematical Research Statistician in the Center for Statistical Research and Methodology at the U.S. Census Bureau. Chaitra completed her Ph.D. in Statistics from The Wharton School, University of Pennsylvania. Her research interests include time series, survey methods, and the history of science. She is the author of Measuring Society, a book about the history and measurement of official statistics, and currently serves on the American Statistical Association's Scientific and Public Affairs Advisory Committee.

Dr. Nagaraja is a member of the International Statistical Institute, Royal Statistical Society, American Statistical Association and International Indian Statistical Association.

We also want to use this opportunity to express our deep gratitude to Dr. Ananda Sen, the outgoing Book Review Editor, for his dedicated service to the International Statistical Review.
