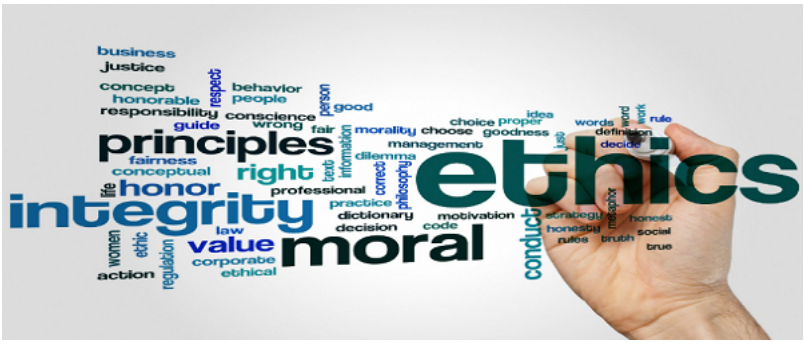
Professional ethics

The ISI is concerned to raise and maintain professional ethical standards in statistics across the world.

As a Non-Government Organization (NGO) ISI can take actions which may be politically difficult for other organisations. We have adopted the ISI Declaration on Professional Ethics and set up an Advisory Board on Ethics to advise on compliance with the Declaration. The ISI considers submissions on ethical issues, issues statement and works with other organisation to raise and maintain ethical standards within the statistics profession.



» ISI Declaration on Professional Ethics «

More information

- Roles and strategies on professional ethics
- ISI Advisory Board on Ethics
- ISI statements and letters concerning statistical ethics
- External resources