

SPORT STATISTICS - WHEN FIGURES ARE MORE THAN NUMBERS

Christophe LEY

Ghent University

Abstract

In this talk, I shall provide a general overview on the growing field of sport statistics, ranging from sports analytics to sports medicine. Sports data have become massive and hence form an excellent playground for statisticians and data scientists. I will present some highlight research outputs from diverse sports and present big challenges to be tackled in the future.

References

- [1] Ley, C. and Dominicy, Y. (eds) (2020) Science Meets Sports - When Statistics Are More Than Numbers, Cambridge Scholars Publishing.